How to Pick a Major...even if your teen has NO idea what they want to be when they grow up!

1. What do most students do WRONG when they approach this process?
2. Why is this so hard for students to do correctly?
3. When should students ideally be choosing their major? (What is too SOON? Too late?)
4. How much do employers really CARE about college majors?
5. What is shadowing?
6. How can your teen narrow down their options if they're interested in a lot of majors?
